Audit

The agent used the Analyst approved-source policy and rejected URLs outside: reuters.com, apnews.com, bloomberg.com, wsj.com, ft.com, sec.gov, fred.stlouisfed.org, federalreserve.gov, seekingalpha.com, benzinga.com. Included records had to be on an approved domain, fall inside the 14-day UTC window, expose a parseable publication timestamp, and carry the required schema fields.

Excluded or downgraded records included stale articles, unapproved domains, unverified source URLs, unparseable dates, malformed records, and article bodies unavailable because of paywalls or HTTP failures.

Validation checked article count consistency, approved source domains, deterministic article IDs, deterministic event cluster IDs, and body excerpts at or under 500 characters.
